

If you are planning a trip to Washington, D.C., I sometimes can arrange tours of the White House, the U.S. Capitol and several other popular sites. Requests for tours of the White House are accepted as long as six months and no later than one month in advance. There is great interest in White House tours, and the tours are filled on a first-come, first-served basis, so the likelihood of a request being approved is better the earlier it is received.

To request tours of the Capitol, the White House, or other sites in Washington, D.C., click HERE.

Also, when visiting Washington, D.C., feel free to stop by my office at 1214 Longworth Building, which is located on the corner of Independence Ave and New Jersey Ave, SE, and we will be happy to provide you with gallery passes to see the floor of the House of Representatives.

Please feel free to contact my office if you have any additional questions. I have also provided some useful links for planning a trip to Washington, D.C.

The United States Capitol United States House of Representative's Visitors Page
White House Supreme Court
Pentagon Bureau of Engraving & Printing Library of Congress State Department
Smithsonian Institution
Washington, DC Visitor's Page
Washington, DC Metro Rail Map Map of U.S. Capitol Complex